

Coordinate System: ED 1950 UTM Zone 35N

Leapfrog modelled mineralization shells are interpolated from drilling, with influence from surface expressions of mineralization and geological controls, and consequently may extend beyond mineralized drillhole intercepts. The shells are intended to graphically indicate the location of known or suspected mineralization. They are not intended to imply the presence of a resource or other potentially economic mineralization and no reliance should be placed thereon."

